Topic: How School Fosters Human Excellence through Compassion – 3 Ways

The Class Assembly of XII-D began as the class choir initiated a melodious rendition of the DAV Gaan, followed by recitation of the Gayatri Mantra.

The Anchors set in motion the first program titled “Siri says Compassion is....” by extending an invitation to Shrienithee M. She enlightened the audience with her reflections on Compassion and the ways in which we can demonstrate this essential virtue through simple acts in our daily lives. Her speech served as an inspiration and guidance to the audience.

This was followed by a skit that aimed to extend a helping hand to the needy led by Rishi R and Jaswant Kumar, which told us the story of two students and their journey to bag the Youth Short Film Award. The story began with the duo's teacher informing them of the competition. They enthusiastically sign up for the opportunity and overcome many obstacles. For a camera, they get help from a fellow classmate who leads them to a professional Director. They then proceed to negotiate with the director and agree to star in one of his projects which involved a dance. After winning over the Director with their dance expertise, they get his aid and are able to create a masterpiece - a Mime Act by the name of “The Cascade” which easily rises to the ranks of the top submissions in the contest. The frame also streams the other finalist’s submission, played by the trio dance artists, Parvathy Rajesh, Ananya Rath and Madhumita R who present a captivating performance titled: “Shadow of the Soul.” When the time comes for the winners to be announced, the boys, who compete against the formidable dance act, are successfully able to bag the prize and are asked to address the gathering. That is when they mention the role of the school and its significance in their lives. They cite numerous examples where the school has instilled Compassion in them which drove them to make it the main theme of the mime. They explain how every value that forged them, and every perfection chiseled into their soul was due to the amazing displays of Compassion they witness in their school.

The skit finally concluded with Harivarman S, urging the crowd to show compassion, altruism, and empathy towards the world. He also mentions the importance of Self Compassion and how one should love oneself.

The Class Assembly concluded with our beloved Principal Ma'am giving a positive remark on the diligent work while several parents who were overwhelmed by the display of talent shared their views on how school plays a prominent role in molding the students into the citizens for a brighter and harmonious tomorrow.
